ED SOUL, Beverly Athletic Club, 2014 Community Partner

Ed Soul, owner of the BAC, voted Best Gym on the North Shore for 10 years and running has been a long time friend of the Consortium. Successfully operating two health clubs in Cambridge and two clubs on the North Shore, Ed remains committed to finding ways to make his business one that can change lives for the better. Over the years, the BAC has opened doors otherwise shut to the unique body of students the Consortium serves. In addition to providing a variety of specialized fitness opportunities to NEC students, the BAC has helped the Consortium build a new athletic field and track which opened fall 2013.

KIM CARRIGAN

Emmy award winning television news anchor, reporter and producer and now radio co-host Kim Carrigan has led breaking news coverage, presidential election and special event coverage, and has traveled across the country to cover major stories. Currently, she is co-host with Barry Armstrong of The Financial Exchange, the morning business-radio broadcast on WRKO AM 680.

“LEX” GILLETTE

Elexis “Lex” Gillette is the best totally blind long and triple jumper in the history of U.S. Paralympics. He is a world record holder, three-time Paralympic medalist, world champion, and 14-time national champion. As a motivational speaker, singer/song writer, and the only athlete in the world to eclipse the 22-foot barrier in the long jump, he epitomizes the phrase, No Need for Sight When You Have a Vision™.
